

International Health Insurance – Unlock the opportunities of privileged health care

Swiss Insurance Partners is the worldwide leading advisor on international health insurance. A topic which very often is overlooked by individuals and their advisors. There are not many people in the world who are aware of the options and benefits of such products and services. At Swiss Insurance Partners, our mission is to protect your most valuable asset: Your health.

The benefits – An international health insurance is a product that offers benefits in two ways. First, the traditional element of insurance offers financial protection. The costs of healthcare increase year by year with no end in sight. Cutting edge treatment very often cannot even be afforded because costs are several hundred thousand dollars. With the financial security that an international health insurance offers, one can ensure that oneself and the family will be able to afford best treatment also in the future. This coverage is worldwide, meaning that it comes with global free choice of hospitals, clinics and doctors. Meaning that you have the possibility to let yourself treat by a worldwide specialist, ensuring cutting-edge medication and newest infrastructure. Being taken care of by the best, in the most suitable environment very often means having less complications, more comfortable recovery and also shorter recovery time. Even more so if you are in a country that does not provide sufficient medical assistance. Together with the insurer, Swiss Insurance Partners will organize your medical emergency evacuation to ensure that you are treated in a facility that offers the healthcare quality that you need and deserve.

Second, the product gives you access to privilege services, knowledge and contacts. Because even if you might be able to afford the consultation, treatment and medication of a suffering, very often you do not know where to find the best facility and specialist for it. Swiss Insurance Partners has the knowledge and the experience to advice on you on where to go and whom to contact in every situation. Being treated by the best specialists in the world will reduce the rate of failures and mistakes in the consultation and treatment tremendously. Thus, this will increase your comfort and peace of mind because you know that you are taken care of by leading experts. This solution cannot prevent you from falling sick, but it will ensure that you have the best options for a fast and seamless recovery.

Who should have it - For individuals and families with high international exposure and likewise for families where health is high on the agenda, an international coverage is a must. It is key to apply for such complementary health insurance as soon as possible, because the risk of falling sick or being involve in an accident increases year after year. Once someone has an impaired health condition, acquiring international health protection becomes more complicated or even impossible (depending on the severity of the impairment).

However, the privilege of applying for a global health protection is mostly only available for truly international people. It is a requirement to have a residence which is different from one's nationality. Expats, wealthy individuals and families and international sportsmen are the primary clientele. Despite that, our team may look at every case separately to assess the possibility of profiting from such a solution.

About Swiss Insurance Partners - For more than 20 years Swiss Insurance Partners has successfully advised and accompanied international individuals and families to protect their health. We are working with all major insurance carriers that offer international health insurance.
